

NEW CORE REQUIREMENTS

CROSS CUTTING COURSES

DIVERSITY (DIV)

Diversity refers to multicultural differences within the United States, including race, gender, age, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion, and social class. Upon completing a course in this category, students should be able to do at least two of the following:

1. Obtain knowledge of the history and culture of one or more of the aforesaid groups in the United States.
2. Demonstrate an awareness of differences, inequities, and the contributions of diverse groups to US society.
3. Explain the relationships among diversity, justice, and power.
4. Describe the factors which contribute to intergroup cooperation and mutual understanding in pluralistic societies.
5. Explain the processes or histories that create or fail to create just, productive, egalitarian and collaborative societies.
6. Describe the processes by which difference (race, gender, religion, etc.) is constructed.

COURSES THAT FULFILL REQUIREMENT

- 50:070:340 Women, Men, and Culture (DIV)
- 50:082:201 LGBTQ in Popular Culture (DIV)
- 50:202:303 Gender, Crime, and Justice (DIV)
- 50:202:330 Social Justice in Film (DIV)
- 50:202:337 Poor, Minorities, and Justice (DIV)
- 50:350:341 Modern World Poetry (DIV)
- 50:350:363 Transatlantic Literature (DIV)
- 50:352:264 American Short Fiction (DIV)
- 50:352:311 American Realism and Naturalism (DIV)
- 50:352:325 Multicultural American Literature (DIV)
- 50:354:212 Special Topics in Film (DIV)
- 50:525:160 Honors Seminar: Multicultural Diversity (DIV)
- 50:615:225 Language, Class, and Culture (DIV)
- 50:615:341 Language, Power, and Politics (DIV)
- 50:790:364 Politics of Minority Groups (DIV)
- 50:790:365 Gender, Race, and Public Policy (DIV)
- 50:830:203 Psychology of Minority Groups (DIV)
- 50:920:316 Race and Ethnicity (DIV)
- 50:920:337 Women and Men in Society (DIV)
- 50:964:201 Exceptional Learners (DIV)
- 50:988:230 Introduction to LGBTQ Studies (DIV)
- 50:988:313 Transgender Studies (DIV)
- 50:988:314 Masculinities (DIV)
- 57:705:394 Historical Contributions of Women to the Health Sciences (DIV)